

A PHILOSOPHY FOR
~~CODE OF CONDUCT OF~~ LBL FACILITATORS (TND)

1. Conduct your practice of LBL as if it is a sacred trust between you and your client.
2. Do not allow your ego to get in the way of client self-expression. This would include projection of your own spiritual experience into the session.
3. Help people liberate themselves from their fears and dispel negative superstitions.
4. Encourage clients to believe they are masters of themselves and that you are a facilitator, not a director.
5. Foster concepts that demonstrate life on earth is not a punishment but an opportunity for self development through benevolent higher powers.
6. Allow clients to see for themselves they are inherently worthy souls on a karmic mission and blessed with the opportunity to serve humankind.
7. You have the obligation for ethical behavior toward your clients and will stay within the scope of your professional competence.
8. Understand that the practice of LBL is a search for truth, purpose and the meaning of our existence.

Michael Newton